BLACKPOOL ARTS AND LIBRARY SERVICES FESTIVAL OF WORDS

OCT 31ST - NOV 16TH 2012

HELLO

As the days grow shorter and the nights lengthen Wordpool, Blackpool's 6th annual festival of words brings you 17 days of events, performances and workshops to brighten up your late autumn hours and remind you how truly magical words can be. This year's theme of diaries has proved a rich source; the Anne Frank & You exhibition takes a fresh look at one of the world's most influential diaries, Day is a contemporary dance commission informed by diary writings and created by children from Revolve School, our Spooky Fun Family Day and ghostly walks, talks and screenings mark October 31st (our opening day), we're asking you to make a date to dance, to support 3 hundred and sixty a graphic novel created on Twitter, help exciting new author Adrian Barnes launch his first novel in Blackpool, mark your own day with writing and photography and much, much more...

Thanks go to Blackpool Council for their continued support for Wordpool, colleagues in Arts, Heritage and Library Services, Blackpool 6th Form College, Blackpool and the Fylde College, Waterstones Blackpool, FYCreatives, Blackpool Schools, Children and Young People's Service, Aunty Social Community Group, Supercollider Contemporary Art Projects, Winter Gardens Trust and Young People's Service, Aunty Social Community Group, Blackpool, Time To Read and all the inspiring authors, writers, poets and performers appearing at this year's festival.

Looking forward to seeing you at Wordpool!

THE BLACKPOOL DIARY

The Blackpool Diary project is an exciting opportunity for you to be part of the future heritage of this very special town. Just record what you do on Weds, 31st October 2012 (Wordpool's opening day). Write about what you think about living in Blackpool today; your hopes and aspirations for yourself and, if you have one, your family. It can be as detailed as you wish.

All the diaries will be kept in the Local History Archive in Blackpool Central Library, and will provide a fascinating insight into the lives of Blackpool people for future generations. Submissions need to be handed in at any Blackpool Library by Weds 14th November, 2012. Come and help us mark this very special event on Thurs, 15th November 2012 at 3.30pm.

Pierrots on the Pier Installation

First and Second Year Fashion students at Blackpool & The Fylde College are very excited to be part of the Wordpool festival. The creative student designers have researched, developed ideas, problem solved and created a beautiful and insightful installation of masks and garments for Blackpool Central Library. Pierrot masks/hats/accessories and garments form the body of the installation using a variety of re-cycled paper, fabrics, threads and books... Students have researched themes of costume for performance through the vast and wonderful collection of theatre Programmes, Flyers, posters, postcards, photographs, and letters, from the library's Cyril Critchlow Archive. The theme of the Installation is 'Diaries' and students have research the theme and history of Pierrots on Blackpool Pier.

Blackpool Culture Shops Artists - BOOK LAUNCH

A shop that was once empty has left a space that forever has potential. Although temporary, Blackpool Culture Shops left a legacy that creates possibility for Blackpool's future. The Culture Shop artists and the remarkable work they produced for the programme are celebrated in this book.

Blackpool Council was one of a number of local authorities across the country that received support from the Department for Communities and Local Government through the Looking After Our Town Centres Initiative and a Grants for the Arts Art in Empty Spaces Award from Arts Council England NW. The funding enabled Blackpool Council to develop the Blackpool Culture Shops Programme, which ran from March 2010 to April 2012.

End to End - THE GRAMOPHONES

The Gramophones Theatre Company is an exciting all female theatre company based in Nottingham. We are thrilled to introduce to you their adventurous new production End to End. In April 2012 three women made a daring and unusual journey from one end of Great Britain to the other. Trusting only to their resourcefulness and the kindness of strangers they made an 18 day, 874-mile journey from Land's End to John O'Groats. They completed their unusual expedition on as many varieties of transport as they possibly could. In End to End they share moments of their journey and their encounters with a host of interesting and unusual characters. This is a story about why we leave places, why we stay and what we imagine of places we have never been to.

Adrian Barnes NOD Book Launch & Reading

ADRIAN BARNES

Adrian Barnes lives in Canada and hails from Blackpool. He is returning to launch his first novel Nod. Already considered a potential blockbuster Wordpool is very excited to be able to launch this book with festival booksellers Waterstones. 'Dawn breaks and no one in the world has slept the night before. Or almost no one. A few people, perhaps one in ten thousand, can still sleep, and they've all shared the same mysterious dream. A handful of silent children can still sleep as well, but what they're dreaming remains a mystery. Global panic ensues.'

WATERSTONES, BLACKPOOL : FREE EVENT, THE FIRST 20 PEOPLE TO ARRIVE WILL RECEIVE A FREE COPY OF NOD

Eleanor Rees & Zoe Lambert

Writers workshops with Blackpool 6th Form students & Blackpool & the Fylde College Students.

ELEANOR REES & ZOE LAMBERT IN CONVERSATION

Poet, Eleanor Rees and writer, Zoe Lambert, present a selection of readings from their widely published work exploring representations of place. Both Zoe and Eleanor write about places and locality. Eleanor's poetry often explores the post-industrial landscapes of Merseyside, similarly, Zoe's recent collection of short stories, The War Tour explores the landscapes and people of urban Manchester in connection to global localities and conflict. Zoe and Eleanor will discuss the questions that motivate their work and the challenges these themes present for a writer. Includes Q & A with the writers & book signings.

WALLS HAVE VOICES READINGS

Walls Have Voices features new work from Blackpool creative writers inspired by Blackpool's wonderful and unique built heritage. Beautifully illustrated by specially commissioned photographs by photographer, Yannick Dixon. Project mentors, writers Zoe Lambert and Elly Rees will introduce readings by the project writers.
